01 - What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer, smartphone, or other devices when you visit a website. They are commonly used to collect and store information about your online activities, including your browsing history, preferences, and settings. Cookies serve various purposes, such as enhancing website functionality, providing analytics, and improving your overall browsing experience.

02 – Types of cookies we use

We use the following types of cookies on our Website:

2.1. Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the basic functioning of our Website. They enable you to navigate the site and access its essential features. Without these cookies, our Website may not function properly.

2.2. Analytical Cookies

We use analytical cookies to collect information about how visitors use our Website. These cookies help us understand which pages are visited most frequently, how users interact with our content, and if they encounter any issues. This information allows us to improve our Website and provide a better user experience.

2.3. Third-Party Cookies

We may allow third-party service providers to place cookies on our Website for various purposes, including analytics. These third-party cookies are subject to the privacy policies of the respective providers. We do not control the data collected by third-party cookies.

03 – Your cookie preferences

You have the option to manage your cookie preferences when you visit our Website. You can:

1. Accept All Cookies: By continuing to use our Website, you consent to the use of all cookies as described in this Cookie Policy.
2. Reject All Cookies: You can configure your browser settings to reject all cookies. However, please note that this may limit your ability to use certain features and functionalities of our Website.

04 – How to manage cookies

Most web browsers allow you to control and manage cookies through their settings. You can usually find information on how to manage cookies in your browser's Help menu. Here are some common browsers and their cookie management links:

05 – Changes and amendments

We reserve the right to modify this Policy or its terms related to the Website and Services at any time at our discretion. When we do, we will revise the updated date at the bottom of this page. We may also provide notice to you in other ways at our discretion, such as through the contact information you have provided.

An updated version of this Policy will be effective immediately upon the posting of the revised Policy unless otherwise specified. Your continued use of the Website and Services after the effective date of the revised Policy (or such other act specified at that time) will constitute your consent to those changes. However, we will not, without your consent, use your Personal Information in a manner materially different than what was stated at the time your Personal Information was collected.

06 – Contacting us

If you have any questions, concerns, or complaints regarding the Policy, the information we hold about you, or if you wish to exercise your rights, we encourage you to contact us using the details below:

systems@etelatar.com

We will attempt to resolve complaints and disputes and make every reasonable effort to honour your wish to exercise your rights as quickly as possible and in any event, within the timescales provided by application data protection laws.
